

Now that you have seen the inspiring film, On the Way to School, there are many ways you can act to ensure the millions of young people around the world whose stories were reflected on the screen from Morocco, Kenya, India and Argentina have access to their right to a quality education. We know that education can open up a world of possibilities and we know the actions and stories can inspire the world. Use the stories of the girls and boys in On the Way to School as inspiration to ACT:

- Stand #UpForSchool with us and sign the petition in support of getting all 59 million children into school!
<http://bit.ly/gceup4school>
- Sign up to receive our action alerts to stay up to date on all things education for all and how you can support the movement to ensure a quality education for all (www.gce-us.org)
- Join the On the Way to School campaign, organize a screening and bring the film to your school: A trailer of the film is available at: <https://vimeo.com/90794633>
- Teach a lesson from the GCE-US Lesson for All about the right to education to a class, after school club, youth group, Girl Scout troop, etc. <http://campaignforeducationusa.org/pages/educational-curriculum>
- Organize a screening of Girl Rising, an award-winning documentary about struggles of nine girls in nine countries to attain an education, <http://www.girlrising.com> and Building Hope, an award-winning documentary about the building of Mahiga Hope High School in Kenya, <http://nobelity.org/building-hope-2011/>
- View and share a 2 minute animated video from UNESCO on the Education for All goals <http://bit.ly/1aXotA4>
- Register your activities as part of Global Action for Education, on the Global Action Week website, <http://bit.ly/act4edu>, as a way to highlight the importance and urgent need of universal quality education. Activities can take place throughout the year.
- Use our So You Want to... planning sheets to plan events, screenings or to help you take other actions. <http://campaignforeducationusa.org/pages/additional-resources>
- Use your social media platforms to follow Twitter (@GCE_US) and Instagram (@gce_us) and like us at Facebook.com/campaignforeducationusa. Then, spread the word about what universal quality education could mean for youth, communities and the world.
 - Sample Tweet: Basic literacy could lift 171million people out of poverty: a 12% cut in world poverty. #ed4all www.gce-us.org
 - Sample Tweet: I am standing #UpForSchool. Join me! <http://bit.ly/gceup4school> #ed4all
 - Sample Facebook Post: 59 million children of primary school age are out of school. The number jumps to 124 million when secondary aged youth are included. I am taking action to change this! Join me! www.gce-us.org
 - Sample Facebook Post: Did you know that one of the three factors that have the power to determine whether you are in school or not is gender? Girls should have just as much access to a quality education as anyone else! I am taking action to change this! You should join me! <http://bit.ly/act4edu>

